Mondo TV Iberoamerica agrees major regional TV deal with Amazon Mondo TV library to be distributed in Latin America on Prime Video Direct platform

Mondo TV Iberoamerica, part of Mondo TV Group, one of the largest European producers and distributors of animated content, has announced a major deal with Amazon for the Latin America region.

Starting in April 2019 a great part of the Mondo TV library will be distributed on the Amazon Prime Video Direct platform to a customer base throughout Latin America.

The deal includes Mondo TV favourites such as The Treasure Island, The Drakers, The Jungle Book and much more, encompassing the wide variety of animated comedy, history, drama, education and romance in the vast Mondo TV library.

Mondo TV possesses one of the largest animation libraries in Europe with more than 2,000 episodes of television series and more than 75 feature-length animated films. Mondo TV Iberoamerica, founded as Mondo TV Spain in 2008, is not just active in distributing Mondo TV's animated catalogue in the region but has recently begun producing, and co-producing, original series.

Maria Bonaria Fois, General Manager Mondo TV Iberoamerica, says: "We're delighted to be working with this respected and popular platform, which is noted for its association with quality product. We believe Amazon platform, by giving viewers across Latin America access to some of our most popular programming, will represent for Mondo great visibility and even greater reach in this all-important market."
